French Sentence Drill - Double negative sentences

Reminder

To say Never again, Never Ever, Ever again or Never more:
(ne) Plus jamais

To say Nothing left, Anything anymore, Anything again:
(ne) Plus rien

To say Never anything:
(ne) Jamais rien

To say Never anyone:
(ne) Jamais personne

To say Never anywhere:
(ne) Jamais nulle part

Note – Generally, we don't split the two negative words (exception: nulle part and Personne)!

Double negation

He never understands anything about this lesson.
Il ne comprend jamais rien à cette leçon.

We never see anyone in this park.
On ne voit jamais personne dans ce parc.

She will never drink coffee again in the morning.
Elle ne boira plus jamais de café le matin.

We'll never, ever go back to this restaurant.
On ne retournera plus jamais dans ce restaurant.

They never go anywhere.
*Ils ne vont jamais nulle part.

She never wants to go anywhere.
*Elle ne veut jamais aller nulle part.

There's nothing left in the shops.
Il ne reste plus rien dans les magasins.

From now on, we won’t say anything anymore.
À partir de maintenant, on ne dira plus rien.

I don’t want to hear anything anymore.
Je ne veux plus rien entendre.